WHAT DOES NATIONWIDE FINANCIAL SERVICES DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal and state laws give consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal and state laws also require us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances, transaction history, and credit history
- Assets and insurance claim history

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Nationwide Financial Services chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Nationwide Financial Services, Inc., Nationwide Life, Harleysville Life, Nationwide Retirement Solutions, Inc., Nationwide Investment Advisors, LLC, Nationwide Fund Distributors, LLC., Jefferson National, and the Nationwide Family of Financial Companies (collectively “NFS”).

What we do

How does NFS protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal and state laws. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We limit access to your information to those who need it to do their job.

How does NFS collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for insurance or give us your contact information
- pay your insurance premiums or file an insurance claim
- show your driver’s license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal and state laws give you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Our affiliates include companies with the Nationwide name, such as Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company and Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company. Visit nationwide.com for a list of affiliated companies.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. NFS does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. NFS doesn’t jointly market.
