Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company and Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company (“Nationwide”), the Nationwide family of companies, Scottsdale Insurance Company, and Western Heritage Insurance Company.

What we do

How does Nationwide protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal and state laws. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We limit access to your information to those who need it to do their job.

How does Nationwide collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for insurance or give us your contact information
- pay your insurance premiums or file an insurance claim
- show your driver’s license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal and state laws give you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Our affiliates include companies with the Nationwide name such as Nationwide Life Insurance Company, Nationwide Bank, and Nationwide Financial Services, Inc. Visit nationwide.com for a list of affiliated companies.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Nationwide does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Our joint marketing partners include financial service companies.
